ASPECTS OF LOCAL FOLKLORE, PAINTED BY GUIDO LANFRANCO IN THE STYLE OF POPULAR ART, AND INAUGURATED BY THE COMMITTEE OF THE FOLKLORE SOCIETY

A NOTE ON THE EXHIBITS

The paintings were all made in the spring of 1975 to serve as a basis for the author, for illustrative material he needed for lectures, television and articles during the following years.

They were painted, in the Maltese popular art to atmosphere, each of these paintings were exhibited for the first time at an exhibition on local folk art by Carmel Cuschieri, at Paceville, Saint Julians, 26 June - 4 July 1976. Guido Lanfranco loaned the first twenty pictures which appear in this catalogue to the National Folklore Museum at Vittoriosa; it was inaugurated, in December 1981 and have been there since, on an indefinite loan. These paintings are being exhibited, under the auspices of the Folklore Society to encourage interest in the study of local folklore. The notes appearing in this Catalogue were enlarged and used intact as captions for the paintings in the exhibition;
